NO. 10

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Laurel county will have a fair in August.

An electric line from Burnside to Monticello is among the possibilities. Miss Eliza Elrod, sister of ex-Sheriff Walter Elrod, died at Somerset last week.

The 8th district W. C. T. U. Association will be held at Livingston May 17-18.

The Burgin Messenger, which seems never to have filled a long-felt want, is dead again.

William Elliott, of Perryville, killed a grey eagle that measured seven feet from tip to tip.

The Corbin Campus says the L. & N. will spend $10,000 in improvements in the yards there this spring.

The docket of the Madison circuit court, which began yesterday, contains 69 criminal and 263 old equity cases.

Tip Bruce has sued the Southern Railroad for $1,500 damages for injuries received in an accident last fall.—Advocate.

The London Kentuckian says that there are two butcher shops in town and no meat in either.—What do London butchers sell?

Congressman Gilbert introduced a bill to pay the administrators of John Conn, of Rockcastle, $304 for farm products taken by Federal troops.

John Blevins was arrested and lodged in jail at London for shooting Miss Mary Mullins at a dance at Pittsburg. A load of shot was lodged in her leg.

John M. Faulkner, who was formerly chief clerk in the commissioner of agriculture's office at Frankfort, under Lucas Moore, has brought suit against him in Marion county for money loaned and for the salary of his office after he was discharged to make room for Lucas' wife.

Heverly Baker, of Clay county, fled from jail, has been arrested for violation of the internal revenue laws and will be taken to Covington to remain in jail until the next term of the Federal court. Gen. T. T. Garrard, who was on his bond in another case, has withdrawn from it.

Banker John A. Black, of Harboursville, denies the story recently sent out from Williamsburg to the effect that Caleb Powers had overdrawn his account in Mr. Black's bank by $1,000, and that Mr. Black had made the check good by advancing the money.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Ex-U. S. Senator Gibson, of Maryland, is dead.

April 21 has been set aside in Congress for paying tribute to the memory of Hon. Evan E. Sotte.

The U. S. Senate will vote on the Porto Rican tariff bill at 4 today and it will carry.

Miss Katherine Reed, daughter of the ex-speaker, has been graduated at a New York law school.

Hon. W. T. Jones, ex-representative from Jessamine, and well known here where he used to come courting, is dead.

Judge Boreling didn't have a dissenting vote in Congress against his retaining his seat against Jno. D. White's contest.

The Elizabethtown News responds that primary elections for State offices have been practiced in Maryland and Georgia for a number of years and if it is practical in those States, there is no reason why it is not practical in Kentucky.

It is said that Gov. Beckham will appoint Dr. J. G. Furnish, of Boone county, superintendent, Mrs. Mary C. Bennett, of Lyon county, matron of the Central Insane Institution. The place of steward is to be given to Mr. Samuel Fulton, of Nelson county, and the 1st assistant physician to Dr. James W. Hill, of Bardonia.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one druggist whose business is to cure the sick and who is not in it for the sake of the money. He is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their medicines worth for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

C. & O. SCENIC PLAYING CARDS.—We have just received a new lot of scenic playing cards. Each card has an exquisite engraving of a bit of scenery along the line and there are 53 different scenes. Similar cards can not be bought for less than $1 per pack. The denominations are shown in small letters and figures in the corners so that persons who do not play cards can arrange them in groups and frame them, making very pretty pictures. Send $10 in cash or stamps to cover cost and postage and a deck will be mailed to your address. George W. Barney, Div. Pass. Agent, Lexington, Ky.

MORELAND.

Rev. William filled his regular appointment here Saturday night and Sunday.

Several of the society young men of Moreland are very desirous of obtaining the words of the song, "The Little Fisher Maiden." Why, we are not informed, but know it could not be for mutual benefit, but from a more selfish motive.

We are informed that local fishermen have succeeded in taking several hundred pounds of fish from the tank reservoir on the Wyatt Sandridge place in the past few days. The mystery is how they ever got there, as the reservoir has never been stocked, and is fed by springs only.

We beg leave to correct a slight error in your matrimonial column in last Friday's issue. The high contracting parties were Mr. Riley King and Miss Lizzie Meyers, of this place, instead of "W. R. Aiken." Every one knows the irrepressible Riley, and will be glad to be informed that he has at last "made the rifle." Also that W. R. Aiken, the name given, being recently deceased, hence the correction. The bride and groom are at present happily sequestered in their home in Middletown, and "at home" to all friends.

The following real estate has changed hands around here in the past few days: Uncle Jack Garrison to Robert Crockett the old Tim Hardin place, nine acres, $1,000; Dodd Rount to W. L. Dishon, house and 10 acres, $1,050; Alfred Russell to W. L. Dishon, 35 acres, unimproved of the old Shannon place, $700; Charles Zachary to Dodd Rount, house and 17 acres of old Shannon place, $780; George Statem to William Epperson, one acre adjoining Epperson, $50; also some eight or 10 transfers of unimportant knob land. Residence property in the immediate neighborhood is in steady demand, and some four or five dwellings are under contract this spring.

The Misses Spears, of Nicholasville, are visiting friends here this week. Len Shannon, who has a position as railroad detective for the Panhandle road, with headquarters at Cincinnati, is here this week accompanied by his wife. Will Rount came up from his mill below Liberty and Sunday at home. His timidity is unquestioned, but the supposition is that Bill came up to east sheep's eyes at certain fair visitors from Jessamine. Benj. Ferrell bought of Mack Lawson a four-year-old harness horse for $50 Saturday. Wash Vanhook and family will move this week to Eubanks, if Mrs. Vanhook's health will permit. Mrs. G. B. Pruitt spent several days last week in Cincinnati buying her spring stock of millinery, and will have a formal opening April 12th. Miss Lizzie Briscoe, who has been visiting friends here for the past few weeks, has been called home on account of the sickness of her brother.

We take it all back, Moreland is certainly degenerating into a social way at least. Several nights since a plunk tea, soiree, or in plain English a "feetball" was in progress upon "Pussum Ridge" at the palatial residence of one Mrs. Patsy Smith, of color. We will digress far enough to state that "Pussum Ridge" is a recent suburb of some six or seven cottages in the North part of the city proper and its chief industry is the business of seeing that the ranks of the republican party is kept full, by the rearing of a class of recruits that "come here" with that belief firmly instilled within them. One of the guests took offense at a hem-breaking dude from Junction City whom he alludes as "talking about" him, and proceeded to start a rough house. Clubs, bed slats, and household plunder rained promiscuously for a few minutes, when a certain "D—yaller democrat nigger" got lost, and the whole masculine push scattered over the front lawn to find him. Nearly every resident of the country for a half mile around was aroused and thought the devil had broke loose in Georgia, from the amount of din that was raised, but you all know the finale of a Negro "feetball," and we can't afford to lose a democrat nigger, so hope they found him.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE—Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their medicines worth for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

MT. VERNON.

Robert Taylor had a fine $130 mare to die.

Some North Kentucky tobacco raisers have located near Brodhead.

A. Custalson swapped a fine mare to John Claunch for a pair of work mules, paying $135 difference.

Ewen O'Neill, who was shot by Harve Smith last week, has died of his wounds. Smith escaped.

James Townsend, who is in jail here on old liquor fines, was given $130 more Saturday and the working statute applied.

Mrs. T. J. Pennington died Friday evening of consumption. She had long been a sufferer. Burial took place Saturday.

Mrs. J. A. Cromer has moved to her father's. Wm. Baker has charge of poor-house until further arrangements can be made.

Rev. Baker, one of the Clay county feud, was lodged in jail here by Deputy U. S. Marshal W. T. Short on some revenue charge.

Some of the new passenger locomotives that pass over this line are rigged to be rung by cord from fireman's side or automatically from engineer's side by air or steam.

Charles Lewis is back from his second trip to Central America, where he has had charge of a force of men in the mahogany forests cutting that valuable timber for the markets.

The death of Capt. B. E. Roberts was the first news many of our people had of that sterling gentleman for some years. He was universally esteemed for his many good qualities of heart and mind.

A Brodhead man sold a house and lot to a Pine Hill man for a stipulated price. First payment to be made April 15th. Should purchaser fail to make any payments, then the property was to be rented out and purchaser was to set aside one-third of rentals and apply same toward payment of purchase amount until all is paid.

W. B. Adams has moved from Garrard to a point on Rockcastle river in this county. Merchant Jonas McKenzie has returned from the city. A new girl at J. A. Landrum's. The Signal is now running home print. Little Mattie Sparks has been quite ill. A new arrival at J. H. McKinney's, making the 11th in the family, the eldest being only 15 years of age. T. J. Hayes and Harry Blazer, of Wildie, were here yesterday.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Frank Henderson killed himself at Baltimore because his wife paid $30 for an Easter bonnet.

Wm. W. Welch, who caught A. H. Cowles, a prominent business man at Cleveland, O., "bugging and a-kissing" of his wife, "hadled suit" against him for $50,000 damages.

It cost Henry Ostendorf, a Louisville married man, $20 to kiss the ruby lips of a maiden, who according to the man, screamed at the third kiss, when there was a tap at the window.—Times.

John Matthews, of Clinton county, celebrated his 78th birthday by marrying Mrs. Susan Roach, aged 59, and the mother of 10 living children. This was Mr. Matthews' third venture and he has eight grown children.

THE SECRET

Of many a woman's beauty lies with the dentist. What is more entrancing than a pretty face and faultless teeth? There is no good reason why your teeth should be out of order. We are selling the finest gold teeth for $5.50. You can surely afford to pay that.

If your teeth need filling, we'll give you the finest work for 75 cents per tooth. If you ask our patients about our work, we feel sure you will be convinced of its genuine merit and fine quality.

A good set of artificial teeth for $5. Special inducements for people from a distance.

The city council of Owensboro raised the liquor license from $200 to $400.

LANCASTER.

Mr. E. W. Norris sold a gelding to Jason Walker for $85.

Rev. J. C. Massee is holding a successful meeting at the Baptist church at Danville.

Invitations have been received here to the golden wedding of the Rev. and Mrs. Lapsley McKee at their home in Danville, April 11.

Win. Arnold and Bob George, both colored, fought Sunday and it is reported that George is seriously hurt. Liquor caused the trouble. Arnold surrendered to Jailer Ross and was locked up.

Our Commercial Club is making extensive preparations to do its part toward entertaining at the G. A. R. meeting in May and such men as J. E. Stormes, J. M. Farra and Louis Landrum will see that it is properly done.

Squire J. N. Denny showed me a lap rug made of the hide of a Jersey heifer, which is the most complete and comfortable rug on the market. His son has arrangements with an eastern firm to have a hide tanned and made into a lap cover for use when driving.

Warning is given to all house-keepers to see that their guns are in repair if they expect to save any thing from the hands of mid-night thieves. About 100 chickens have been stolen from Mrs. M. H. Gill, a number from W. B. Moss, J. M. Duncan, John A. Stone, T. J. Hatcher and several pieces of meat were taken from Reuben Naylor's house. Many people live without working and have no visible means of support and the thieves can be found among this class.

It was my good fortune on Friday to accompany that sterling gentleman, Mr. E. W. Norris, to Paint Lick, which is the most enterprising and flourishing town of its size in Kentucky. Eighteen drummers were there Thursday and such men as Fish, Bartridge and Moore, Eley, Rucker, R. L. Jennings and J. B. Jennings gave them plenty to do. I had the pleasure of partaking of a splendid dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams. By the way, Mr. Adams has always been a working democrat and his friends propose to reward him by giving him an office.

Mr. R. H. Baston has returned home much improved in health. Miss Ida May Grant has been sick, but is improving. J. Paul Miller, of Lexington College, spent Sunday at home. Mrs. George D. Lusk will leave Wednesday for Comfort, Texas, where her husband went and his friends will be glad to learn that he is recovering health. Postmaster West is smiling over the birth of another son Saturday night. Mr. A. H. Baston has kindly given the bulletins received over his telephone lines in reference to dolings at Frankfort, to the public free of charge. Mrs. J. A. Doty has gone to Frankfort to visit relatives. Mrs. Laura Rice, of Shelby, is visiting her father, B. W. Gaines. Mr. R. A. Stone bought of J. E. Stormes the C. C. Stormes homestead on Richmond Avenue for $2,500, and Stone sold Ed Minor a lot near the railroad for $1,500 on which he proposes to build a large flouring and planing mill. Other enterprises are on foot and they will materialize by the time the new railroad is built.

On Friday night the citizens met at the city court room to appoint committees to make all arrangements to entertain the G. A. R. May 24 and 25. M. D. Hughes was called to the chair and W. B. Mason was elected secretary. Capt. Herndon explained the necessity for raising funds and told what the program would be. The chair appointed W. O. Rigney, G. B. Swinebroad, H. T. Logan and L. L. Walker a committee on finance and $170 was raised at once and much more has been subscribed since. Capt. Herndon, J. E. Robinson and Judge Hemphill, were appointed to select other committees, the chairmen of which are as follows: On hall and music, J. E. Stormes; transportation, J. C. Hemphill; entertainment, Dr. J. B. Klenard; reception, J. M. Logan; address, L. L. Walker; to confer with Confederate veterans, Capt. Herndon; hotels, R. E. McRoberts; women's relief corps, Miss Francis Collier. Ladies' G. A. R. circle, Mrs. Juliet Rogers; sons of veterans, Louis Landrum; badges, James Dillon; press, M. D. Hughes, Capt. Landrum, George Smith, Jr., Miss Ida May Grant. No pains or funds will be spared in decorating the city, furnishing music and hotel accommodations. Citizens will also entertain and the crowd will be cared for, however large it may be. A spread will be given at Camp Dick Robinson.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - APRIL 3, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

THIS promises to be a memorable week for the conspirators. A grand jury was empaneled in Judge Cantrell's court at Frankfort yesterday, upon which will devolve the duty of investigating the conspiracy that evidently originated in the executive building from which all doubt has been removed that the shot that killed Gov. Goebel was fired. The circumstances and the confessions all go to prove that Taylor was not only privy to the diabolical plot of assassination, but an active participant in it, and we believe that before the week is gone he will be indicted and in jail, from which he has too long been allowed to go free.

Let us reiterate the facts for the purpose of recalling them to the minds of those who may have forgotten them: On the morning of Jan. 30th as Senator Goebel was about to enter the Capitol building to attend to the duties imposed upon him, he was fired upon by a friend ambushed in the office of the secretary of State, which is in the executive building, and received a wound from which he died the following Saturday night. Instead of using every effort to assist the local authorities in apprehending the assassin, Taylor, the acting governor, threw a cordon of bayonets around the building, which was packed with desperate characters brought to Frankfort for the purpose of intimidation and assassination, and for three days and nights prevented its search. Let it be remembered how quickly the local soldiers were on the scene, indicating very clearly that they were in readiness and that the shots were to be the signal for their appearance. In less than 12 hours he had every one of his partisan soldiers at the Capital and virtually put the city under martial law; adjourned the Legislature to London under the lying assertion that a state of insurrection existed and then chased the body over the city to prevent it from meeting and doing the work the people had elected it to do. He defied the courts, suspended the writ of habeas corpus and did other acts of treason and usurpation that put to blush any former usurper.

Then when sufficient evidence had been obtained to warrant the arrest of Caleb Powers and Policeman Davis, who were in the executive building, he furnished them a company of soldiers, had them disguised, supplied them with pardons and tried to spirit them away to his loyal mountain fastnesses. These circumstances form a chain of evidence sufficient to convict and hang Taylor, even if his guilt were not so fully corroborated by the confessions of Golden, Culton and others. "Call out the soldiers!" demanded one of the conspirators of him, when it had been arranged to murder a sufficient number of the legislators, including Goebel to make the body republican. "My God," Taylor exclaimed, "you fellows must do something first, I can get the soldiers out quick enough." True to his word he did have them there almost the same moment that something was done, Gov. Goebel hardly having been lifted from the story walk before they were there. Since then he has kept his cowardly carcass, holding a basely guilty conscience, surrounded by soldiers to guard and protect him from the consequences of his crime.

Does an innocent man act as he has? Doesn't a guiltless man, confident of no wrong doing, court instead of avoid a full investigation? Was not Taylor to be the chief beneficiary by the death of Goebel? Didn't his enemy think that he had to be made away with that day in order to stop the contest for the governorship before a vote could be taken? Hasn't everything that Taylor has done before and since the assassination of Gov. Goebel proved his guiltiness? Every honest man, republican or otherwise, is bound to answer these questions in the affirmative and say that he is accessory before and after the fact. The burden of proof is now on the accused. Let him show his innocence or let his life pay the forfeit. It is well enough to punish Powers and the other accomplices in the most dastardly crime of the century, but what will their necks avail, if the head and centre of the damnable conspiracy goes free?

The average republican is not too good for any questionable act, it seems, but we are surprised and saddened by the confession of guilt that Charles Finley's flight indicates. He is said to be in Indianapolis under the protecting wing of a sheriff-jailer, in a State whose governor will not recognize a democratic requisition for him. This looks bad for Finley, of whom we had hoped better things. His acts do not show a clear conscience, but condemn and damn him in the estimation of those who would fain believe him guiltless. Let him appear for investigation or be captured at all hazards.

"LET no innocent man suffer," shriek the organs of assassination. No danger of that. Their only really concern is that it begins to look like no guilty man will escape.

It seems to be the finding of the Fayette grand jury that too many "new woman" cooks have spoiled the State House of Reform broth. Will old hook-worm Walton save his bacon by prompt confession?—Louisville Times. Old Adam Logan would have us follow the precedent laid down by the first man, which was "put it all on the women," but we are not a later day representative of the old rascal in that particular and are willing to bear our part of any blame or censure that may attach to the building or management of the House of Reform. We are free, however, to admit that whatever of credit is due for either belongs almost exclusively to the women, who have had more time to strive and have striven harder than the men. And we are absolutely confident that there is nothing in the finding of the Fayette grand jury, which to even a casual observer, must have something back of it. So far as the writer, who is one of the six trustees, can judge, the buildings are unusually well constructed. With boys coming in every day the Negro accommodations are a little limited now, but the building for them will be ready in a month. The trustees have done all in their power to hurry up the contractors, except to take the contracts from them. The latter was considered by the board but such action would have greatly delayed, instead of advancing the work. The State is protected by a good bond and $25 a day forfeit, which the trustees have held for final adjudication. We know the contractors have labored under many difficulties in the way of getting materials and otherwise and that they are paying more for material now than they get, and have therefore applied the golden rule to them, but the State will not and shall not lose by it. An honorable expert will be bound to pronounce every thing first-class and feeling confident of this, the trustees can afford to suffer for a season the contumely of an idiotic grand jury, some of whom doubtless wouldn't know a fire escape from a hole in the ground.

It does us good to observe that Mr. Watterson has swung fully into the column again, from which we begged him with tears in our eyes and in pitiful tones in 1896 not to withdraw. He announces that the Courier Journal will abide the result no matter what it be and will support the nominee of the Kansas City convention, who he says will be Bryan by acclamation, the gathering being simply a ratification meeting. "And" he adds, "if he can hold the vote he got in 1896, he will be elected, for at least a million of the gold democrats who voted against him in 1896, the money difference out of the way, will vote for him in 1900." We love to read such words of comfort from one who used to be our patron saint of democracy and for whose opinion we have always had the highest respect even when not agreeing with him. With the Courier Journal and its matchless editor with us what care we if a certain disreputable sheet in Louisville and subsidized ones in Lexington and other places be against us. Walk up, Mr. Watterson, get the new suit of clothes, put the ring on your finger and eat the fatted calf and drink and be merry.

The old saying that when a man once gets printer's ink on his fingers he is never chitirely able to eradicate it, is again proven true, this time by Mr. F. J. Campbell, one of the originators and founders of the great moral engine that is telling this story. Editor L. E. Hunt, of the Progressive Home Journal, of Somerset, announces that Mr. Campbell has purchased a half interest in that paper and that on or before July 1 he will assume the active business management of the paper and its job office, acting as assistant editor till that time. The arrangement is a first-rate one for the P. H. Journal, and Mr. Hunt shows great anxiety in the selection of a partner. Mr. Campbell is a facile, vigorous and incessant writer and will make the paper even better than it now is. We welcome "Ceph," to the fold again very heartily, especially since he seems to have sought pardon for the crime of '96.

In citing instances of shocking wrongs committed "under the forms of law," Col. Breckinridge strangely omits that famous Washington case of which he was the mulcted and mutilated victim.—Louisville Times. Why do some people try always to be unpleasant? Hasn't the colonel paid the $15,000 assessed against him in favor of the girl he had wronged and hasn't he since been hiding under the log cabin to avoid harsh criticism? Do let the erring and repentant sinner rest.

The secretary and treasurer estimates that by the end of June of this year the surplus of government receipts over expenditures will aggregate $60,000,000. He thinks that the present rate of taxation might, in consequence, be reduced to some extent, but his suggestion will fall on deaf ears. The republicans want to pile up money in the treasury to squander.

THE Lexington Leader sent an expert to the Houses of Reform, who states that there are no grounds for the charges made by the grand jury of Fayette that bad materials have been used in the buildings.

VOTES of confidence in ex-Rev. and ex-Auditor Sweeney by people who do not know the facts, amount to little. We may say that we can not believe a preacher guilty of conspiracy to assassinate but that would prove nothing. Culton, according to the Cincinnati Post, bears testimony to the contrary.

"I KNOW enough to hang Taylor and damn the republican party," said Youtsey to James Andrew Scott and he is going to tell it too. The pot is boiling.

THE LATEST.

LOUISVILLE APRIL 3, 9 A. M.—Senator S. B. Harrell writes an open letter, published in The Dispatch, to Gov. Beckham, calling him a political ingrate and says Beckham "refused to let me (Harrell) name a man for the pettiest office in your gift." He claims credit for making Beckham governor and threatens to run in opposition to him this fall.

Taylor failed to leave Morgantown as was expected: a friend claiming that they heard a warrant had been issued for him.

The republicans have put a Gatling gun in the executive building and have ordered food from Cincinnati, as if preparing for a siege.

Julius Fleischman, millionaire republican, was elected mayor of Cincinnati.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 2.—The grand jury as empaneled and charged in Judge Cantrell's court stands eight democrats, two republicans, a Brownie and a populist. Several republicans refused to serve.

"Tallow Dick" Combs, of Lee county, was placed in jail here at 3 o'clock. He was brought in by Jailer of Lee and the Chief of Police of Winchester.

Damages in the sum of $500 each against the usurpers of the minor State offices were asked in a petition filed in court by the democratic officials.

About Conspirators and Assassins.

Postmaster Baker, of Louisville, and L. J. Crawford, of Newport, went to Policeman Davis' ball and he breathes the fresh air again.

The Morgantown militia is being prepared for any emergency and is busy drilling. It is expected that it will become Taylor's body-guard wherever he goes.

Patrolman William Looney was indicted for assault and battery on Caleb Powers when he was arrested at Lexington while attempting to escape in disguise.

The court of appeals, with all the judges sitting, heard the governorship case at Louisville yesterday. Judge W. S. Pryor and Lewis McQuown spoke for the democrats and Gov. W. O. Bradley and Helm Bruce for the republicans. Each speech was limited to 15 hours and a decision is expected tomorrow.

It is reported at Morgantown that W. S. Taylor is planning to go to London, where he might be safe from arrest should an indictment be returned against him by the grand jury which was empaneled at Frankfort yesterday. He has sold all his property at Morgantown and has sent an agent through the county collecting notes.

The story sent out from Winchester that Attorney James Andrew Scott, of Frankfort, had proposed to the relatives of H. E. Youtsey to give him a portion of the reward money for a confession of the details of the conspiracy to assassinate Gov. Goebel, called forth the statement from Judge Lewis, president of the commission, that no private citizen has authority from the commission to offer rewards for confessions of alleged accessories. "Not a cent of the $100,000 has yet been spent, and I think you can safely say that not a dollar of it will be paid for confessions."

Mr. Scott says he is not connected with the prosecution in any way, and that he was merely acting as Youtsey's friend and as Youtsey's request. He says that Youtsey told him he knew enough of the plot to damn the republican party and hang certain persons high in authority, but that if he confessed he would be deprived of a means of earning a livelihood, and for that reason he asked if he could get any part of the reward.

LAND AND STOCK.

A. C. Dunn bought in Rockcastle a jack for $150.

A Mercer county man has 40 ewes with 100 lambs.

The prize hog of Orange county, N. Y., weighed 981 pounds.

C. T. Sandilge has decided to stand Preston at $15 instead of $20.

Beazley Bros. bought three mares of a Lebanon party at $90 to $100.

John L. Helm, of Hardin, sold 90 1,300 pound cattle to J. Weihs at $2c.

Four car loads of choice timothy hay for sale. S. W. Burk, Bryantsville.

E. E. Patterson will stand his fine stallion, Oklahoma, and Jack, Bud, at his place near town. See ad.

S. Morgan bought of A. J. Thompson a bunch of extra good hogs at 4 3/5, of J. C. Hays 92 at 3 1/2 and of E. L. King 29 at 4c.

Sales of 100 barrels of corn at $2 25, 100 hogs at 4 1/2 and 400 lambs for June 15 to July 15 delivery at 4 1/2 are reported in the Winchester Democrat.

Dr. Wyatt Letcher has sold the Tom Adams farm of 220 1/2 acres, in Garrard, to Mrs. Nannie W. Owens at $60, possession to be given at once.—Advocate.

Farmers, who have corn, and still holding it at $2.50 at the crib and millers and distillers are compelled to get their supplies from the city at less money.

MULKS TO WORK—I have a lot of good, strong, young mules that I will let out to be worked until Aug. 1. Apply to E. W. Lee, on the Gran. Cecil farm, on Salt river, Boyle county.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

GARDENS plowed on short notice. Beazley Bros.

THE Misses Straub are opening up a splendid line of well selected and beautiful millinery, and invite the ladies to call and examine it.

MORRIS FRED, of the Exchange, is figuring on building a flourishing mill here and may buy the property where his Exchange is located.

IN the quarterly court yesterday, Hon. F. F. Bobbitt got a verdict against Peter Waddle for $49 for trespass on the lands of Wm. Landgraf.

BESIDES four other leading fire insurance companies, Agent R. B. Mahony has the agency for the Continental in the counties of Lincoln, Boyle and Casey.

ALL water and light bills paid at the office of the company before the 10th of April are subject to a discount of 2 per cent. G. L. Penny, secy. and treasurer.

THE children are all cordially invited to call at my shop Saturday afternoon April 7, where they will each be presented with an Easter souvenir. Annie P. Phillips.

MISS LUCIE BEAZLEY has returned from the cities and will have her Easter opening of spring and summer millinery, Monday and Tuesday, April 9 and 10, to which she invites the ladies.

OUR Goebel monument fund was at last reported:—$99 50 S. M. Helm..... 50 W. J. Snodgrass, Gordon, Kas., 1 00 J. H. Dalgh..... 20 L. C. Gooch..... 25

NEW MILLINERY STORE.—Miss Nannie Vandever went to Louisville a few days since to buy a stock of goods for the millinery store she and her sister, Mrs. Mattie Kirby, will open in the store-room occupied by the post-office.

CLAIMS.—Yesterday Representative Gilbert introduced the following claims: W. G. Dunn, of Garrard county, $1,400; heirs of C. L. Carter, Lincoln county, $500; James M. Crawford, Rockcastle county, $3,100; E. B. Caldwell, Wayneburg, $1,250; Mrs. Virginia H. King, Lincoln county, $1,500.

ACQUITTED.—Jailer G. W. DeFord got a letter from Henry Pennington in Leslie county, this morning, telling him of his acquittal. He laid in jail here for nearly a year under a life sentence for murder, but the court of appeals reversed it. W. B. Hansford, late of Crab Orchard, defended him.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

Bishop Morrison will preach at Perryville May 17 and at Danville May 18. Rev. G. M. Moore, of Lexington, is assisting Rev. George W. Bowling at the colored Baptist church, which has 25 "mourners" to date.

The C. W. B. M. will meet in the lecture room of the Christian church Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock, where we are asked by Miss Ann Shanks to state.

HUSTONVILLE.

Hustonville has the most flourishing Christian Endeavor Society in Central Kentucky.

Doc Drye has a half dozen of the finest horses in this section which he has gathered up to sell.

The Misses Adams will have their opening of spring and summer millinery Friday and Saturday, 6th and 7th. A frequent visitor to our town suggests that we change the name of our city to Hospitality. Don't you think it would be an appropriate name?

The stove pipe fell in the Christian church Sunday morning while Sunday school was in progress, and a joint of it struck Cashier J. W. Hocker on the nose, cutting an ugly gash.

Mrs. Helen Huffman is keeping for Ed Hopper, the spectacles worn by the late Gov. Letcher, a relative of the clever secretary of the Latonia race course. They have in them about $25 worth of gold and the lenses are the finest made in that day.

W. C. Greening has broken ground on the lot next to James Frye's for a building to be used as a grocery and supply store which he will run himself. If we had a few more enterprising citizens like Mr. Greening, our town would double its population before 1901.

Alonso Cassell, formerly of this place, but later of Somerset, has leased the Hustonville & Green River Valley Telephone line for a term of three years and took possession April 1. He has had years of experience in the telephone business and will keep the line in ship shape.

Misses Anna Reid and Lou Hocker returned Sunday morning from a delightful visit to the Misses Cook at Nashville. J. G. Weatherford, of Milldale, is with his brothers, Messrs. W. D. and G. D. Weatherford. Bob Hocker was here Sunday as usual. Harry B. Hocker, agent George L. Carpenter, of Danville, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. J. W. Hocker. Mrs. Kate Culbertson and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Covington, were guests of Mrs. H. R. Camnitz and family.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, Ky., - APRIL 3, 1900

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

THE best materials combined with care, skill and accuracy insure good results. No other methods are ever used in our prescription work. Penny Drug Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

JOHN H. MEIER went to Richmond Saturday.

SHELTON M. SAUFLEY, of this office, is quite sick.

MR. J. C. EUBANKS started to Springfield, Ill., yesterday.

MRS. J. C. HAYS returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Garrard.

MR. J. R. BLANKENSHIP has gone to Indianapolis to stay several months.

MR. J. F. HOLMAN went to Frankfort yesterday to straighten things out.

MR. AND MRS. D. A. TWADDLE are guests of Col. and Mrs. W. H. Dudderar.

MR. J. R. ALFORD went to Louisville yesterday, looking mighty like a court-lug man.

MISS MAYBELLE DRYE, of Hustonville, was the guest of Miss Lucille Cooper.

REV. GEORGE GOWAN is being treated at the Joseph Price Infirmary, for a throat trouble.

MISS J. C. MERSHON and Mrs. John Hagan, of Corbin, were guests of Mrs. M. C. Williams.

CAPT. L. B. PARSONS, of Lebanon Junction, spent a few days with relatives at Rowland.

MRS. W. L. MURPHY left for Louisville Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Stucky.

MISS CORINE SANDERS, of Payne's Depot, will arrive Thursday to visit Miss Sallie Dudderar.

DIG. AND MRS. J. W. IRRYANT took a final adieu of their friends yesterday and left for Versailles.

JOE E. ROUC, one of the best engineers on the road, spent a day or so with his father and sister here.

REV. J. B. CROUCH took his pretty little twins over to Cincinnati yesterday to see their grandmother.

W. D. EDMISTON, of Edmiston Bros., Crab Orchard, passed up from the cities Friday, where he bought lots of goods.

L. H. RAMSEY, the Lexington bill poster, formerly of Stanford, has leased the Paris Opera House, one of the finest in the State.

MR. F. M. SHUMATE, of Danville, and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, are with his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Jackson, - London, Kentucky.

MR. E. G. WALTON is in Casey, where he always does well for this paper. Mrs. Walton and the children are with friends at Hustonville.

T. D. RANEY went down to the opening of Sallinger Bros' new store at Danville and says it is very large and complete.

THERE is no truth in the report that William P. Walton, Jr., has diphtheria. Dr. Halley pronounces it a form of tonsillitis and the little fellow is nearly well.

DR. J. TOM HOHON, of Lincoln, has been visiting his brother, Geo. Hohon. Rufus Lipps, of Hustonville, was with friends here this week. - Harrodsburg Democrat.

MR. R. H. CROW, who has been down with rheumatism for months, was here yesterday for the first time for many moons, looking a little the worse for the seige.

MR. R. C. COFFEY, record keeper of the Hustonville Tent of Macabees, was here yesterday fixing up the papers to draw the $2,000 insurance carried by W. R. Aiken in that order.

MR. COLMAN'S BISHOP likes the recent articles in this paper on the conspirators so well that he came in yesterday and subscribed and paid for three copies to friends at Pulaski Station.

IN subscribing for this paper and the Goebel monument fund, W. J. Sudgrass writes from Gordon, Kas.: As an old Kentuckian, I pray the democrats will come out on top and Taylor and his mountain assassins will be severely punished.

MR. DOLPH RICE is now located at Lexington, with the Champion Machine Company. His brother, Howard, who is now one of the general agents of this big concern, will shortly move to Nashville to make that city his headquarters. - Advocate.

MIC. A. H. SEVERANCE and wife arrived Saturday from Hendersonville, N. C., and yesterday Mrs. Severance and Mrs. Will Severance and the baby went to Richmond to visit Dr. Heath. Mr. Severance returned last night to the Tar Heel State, where he is doing finely with his ice plant.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

HAMILTON for good watch work.

NEW jewelry at Embury & Engleman's.

HIGHEST price paid for chickens, geese and ducks. F. D. Ballou

SIX members of the family of William Stratton, who lives at the foot of Mason's Gap, are down with small-pox in a mild form.

LINE of sample carpets at Beazley & Hays'.

FRESH bread every day; 10c a loaf for 10c. John H. Meier.

Big line gents' ties, kid gloves and shirts just opened. J. P. Jones.

THIS week we are selling an extra good $1 kid glove for ladies for 75c. J. P. Jones.

HAY, Straw, Corn, Oats, Shipstuf and all kinds of feed sold for cash only. J. H. Baughman & Co.

FOR RENT.—Dwelling on Danville Avenue, next to Methodist parsonage. Possession immediately. Mrs. Fannie Dunn.

WE have just received an elegant line of Nickle-on Copper Coffee and Tea Pots. Call and see them. Warren & Shanke.

OLD MOCK WHISKY.—G. D. Weatherford has a contract for full control and sale of Old Mock Whisky in Hustonville. H. C. Mock.

STOCK men will remember that it is a fine of $5 to $50 to show stock on the street here now. Sales on court day must be at the stock pens.

MISSION HOUSE.—Elder Ed Hubbard has secured the room lately occupied by J. W. Belden as a store, and will preach there each Sunday to his little band.

THE town of Somerset caught a $20 fine in the circuit court for not keeping the streets in good repair. Unless our streets are worked on, Stanford will fare similarly or worse.

ONLY two Louisville Dispatches are sold here, and the question might be asked what the devil are they bought for. Democrats don't want it and radicals can find better papers for less money.

THE so-called small pox continues to prevail in this section. Wm. Stratton and all his family have it and as they are poor people, it is with much difficulty that they can get attention or food.

I WILL have my Spring opening Wednesday and Thursday next, April 4 and 5, at which time I will show a beautiful line of spring and summer goods. You are cordially invited to call. Miss Annie Phillips.

SAW MILL.—"Highland Jim" Carter has started a saw mill near his place with a capacity of 10,000 feet a day, which gives employment to a dozen or more men and is a boon for his section, besides a money maker for him.

A YOUNG limb of the law, dressed in his best suit of clothes, called at the house a young lady told him she would be Sunday night, and when told that she was not there and it began to dawn on him that he had been April fooled, he looked as blank as he would on losing a dead sure case in court.

MARTIN.—Mrs. Martha Martin, widow of the late Simp Martin, died at Jarrett Berry's, near Highland Saturday afternoon of a complication of troubles and was buried in the grave yard at Mt. Moriah Church Sunday. She was 73 years old, left no children and was a member of the Mormon church.

AN elegant entertainment will be given at the Christian church Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights by Prof. A. C. Hopkins, the sweet singer. He will illustrate with Edison's Kinetoscope Chautauqua work for Sunday Schools and combine music with the art. No admission will be charged and everybody is invited.

MAN DOG.—A dog belonging to Little Caswell Saulley went mad Friday and bit dogs right and left. As soon as Judge Saulley found out the facts he had the dog killed. This is the second dog that has gone mad at the judge's recently, the other having been killed also. Fearing a general outbreak among the dogs, the mayor has issued a proclamation that all dogs running at large and not securely muzzled by Thursday shall be killed by the marshal. See proclamation.

BACK INTO THE FAMILY.—W. P. Grimes has sold to J. T. Bligaman 108 acres of the Hugh Seargent place at $35. Thus after 60 years in the possession of others the property comes back into the family that formerly owned it. Lewis Hutchison, Mr. Bligaman's grandfather, built the house on it in 1825. It is a brick and in splendid condition. Another rather remarkable feature is that Mr. Grimes' grandfather, Gabriel Lackey, once owned the place and after coming into the possession of his grandson that grandson sold it to the grandson of its original owner.

THE Louisville Store has just begun the 12th year of its advertising with us and during the time that they have been here, have paid us about $2,000. This is a good deal of money, but the firm thinks it is a good investment and Manager T. D. Rane says he is confident, from the remarks of his patrons in Casey and other counties, that his "ad" in the I. J. has drawn that trade to him, while in this section the people look to it for bargains and low prices that they can not obtain elsewhere. The Sallinger Bros. are up-to-date merchants and they keep the Louisville Store rammed, crammed and jammed with good goods at the lowest prices.

The Columbia Theater, one of the oldest play-houses in Chicago, was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $100,000.

It is said that the Ladies Goebel Monument Committee has secured $10,000, which is much more than the men have gotten.

Col. Bennett H. Young has bought a fine Woodford county horse for Gen. Gordon to ride at the Confederate reunion in Louisville.

McMinnville, Tenn., is to have a triple hanging April 26. The three men are to be executed for the murder of a fellow prisoner.

In a fit of temporary insanity, Wm. Gard, of Cincinnati, shot three fellow-workmen, badly wounding them, and then killed himself.

William Busb and Tom McCain were sentenced at Hopkinsville to nine years' and eight years' imprisonment, respectively, for attempting to wreck an L. & N. train.

The $400,000 of 34 per cent. Louisville city bonds to be sold April 20, are expected to bring a premium of at least $30,000. The bonds run 40 years and can not be called.

G. G. White & Co.'s distillery at Paris, burned by the bursting of a large copper doubler. Loss $30,000. It was making 600 bushels of grain a day and required seven-store keepers and gaugers to see after it.

Near Crockett, Texas., while W. H. Oliver and J. A. Castling, brothers-in-law, and their wives, were sitting up with the corpse of E. M. Moorehead, father-in-law of the men, the latter quarreled and Oliver was stabbed to death. Castling is in jail.

The sale of the house-hold goods and art objects of the estate of Kate Chase Sprague, brought at auction $44,418. The old lace worn by Kate Chase when she was presented at the court of St. James, was sold for $37.50 a yard. A bust of her father brought $475.

MIDDLEBURG.

Prayer services are being held at the M. E. church each night last week.

The school trustees of Middleburg district have not closed the trade with Mc. Wheat for his property yet, and the indications are that the district will not build a school-house before another school is taught.

Dr. Floyd and J. C. Collinsworth, of Humphreys, was here on business. Dr. L. J. Godby, of this place, and James Carson, of Phil, have returned from Louisville, where they have been on business for several days. J. W. McWhorter, Sr., is on the sick list again. Mrs. F. E. Gillette is visiting relatives in Indianapolis this week.

J. T. Wheeler, who recently bought land of J. C. Coulter, near this place, has moved his family to his new possessions. George W. Ross, of Yosemite, has sold his property in that town and will move to Russell county in the near future. James Wells, who has been very low of pneumonia for some time, is improving very rapidly. Johnnie Coulter will move to this place soon, having rented property of J. K. Coffey. John Spears passed through town with an extra large catamount, which was killed near the foot of Lawhorn hill, five miles West of this place last week.

Green River is up again and as J. C. Lay and G. S. Durham were attempting to ford it they got into deep water and their horse reared and fell, becoming entangled in the harness and would possibly have drowned, but Mr. Lay leaped out of the buggy and cut the harness. Before the wreck was cleared up, Elias Elliott drove up and concluded he could ford it, which he attempted, but after a desperate struggle his horse landed 80 yards below on the same side of the river he started from, but considerably disfigured.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"A fearful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia, but she lasted for Dr. King's New Discovery, trying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and she further was completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by Craig & Hooker.

Loss in the wheat crop in India by the drought is estimated by Viceroy Curzon between $10,000,000 and $50,000,000. The cotton crop is said also to have been damaged to the extent of $35,000,000.

"THE LAND OF THE SKY" COUNTRY.

The mountain section of Western North Carolina, where the Southern Railway crosses the Allegheny Mountains, is one of the most beautiful countries on earth, with climatic advantages second to none. This country is known as "THE LAND OF THE SKY," and in this "Land of the Sky" are situated the attractive Resorts of Asheville, Hot Springs, Tryon, Hixson Mountain, etc. At these points, as well as many others, there are superior Hotel accommodations and visitors to this wonderful country find it at all seasons of the year most advantageous.

Adjacent to "The Land of the Sky" is what is known as "The Sapphire Country," which is reached by the Southern Railway via Asheville, Hendersonville, N. C., to Broadard, N. C., thence by stage through a wonderfully interesting country. The Sapphire Inn, on Sapphire Lake, furnishes good accommodations, and Fairfield Inn on Fairfield Lake, is a large Hotel, just completed and being extensively patronized by visitors from all over the United States.

The average altitude of the Sapphire Country is 3,000 feet above the Sea level. The country is most attractive, not only in summer, but also as a Winter and Spring Resort.
